70 CURRENT BUINESS:

70.1 Civic Campus art discussion with artist CJ Rench

One of the two selected artists for Town Center Plaza, JC Rench presented his new native wildflower sculpture renderings to commissioners. He also passed out illustrations of different flower ideas for the group to look at. The group discussed location of the sculpture and recommend that it be located in the plaza so that it is visible from future council chambers. Commissioners also discussed the color, size and shape of the sculptures as well as different lighting options. The meeting ended with Mr. Rench stating that he would create some renderings of what the commissioners requested.
