Property Return Request

You can seek the return of your property by completing this form. The review process can take up to five business days. Complete and accurate information will expedite the process. Print legibly. You may be asked to provide proof of ownership. You will be contacted during regular business hours once a decision has been made regarding the release of property. Property that is authorized for release will be done by appointment only during business hours.

If the property taken is contraband or illegal to possess, it will be destroyed.

The return of firearms is controlled by RCW Chapter 9.41, which prohibits possession of firearms by convicted felons, persons convicted of domestic violence offenses, persons subject to certain court orders, and persons with pending criminal cases. Firearms will not be returned to persons who are federally prohibited except by court order.
